Community Covenant Church - Eagle River

Welcome to Church Community Covenant Church in Eagle River, Alaska

Nestled in the heart of Eagle River, Church Community Covenant Church offers a warm, inviting atmosphere for families and individuals alike. With a focus on community outreach, this church strives to be more than just a place of worship; it's a family where relationships are fostered and lives are transformed.

Amenities to Enhance Your Experience

At CCC, you will find a range of amenities designed to ensure that everyone feels welcomed and comfortable. The church is equipped with a wheelchair-accessible entrance, ensuring that all visitors can easily enter the building. For those who require additional support, there are wheelchair-accessible seating options available throughout the sanctuary.

Accessibility Features for Everyone

Understanding the importance of inclusivity, CCC has taken significant steps to enhance its accessibility. In addition to the wheelchair-accessible entrance and seating, the church also features a clean and well-maintained toilet facility designed with accessibility in mind. Moreover, the wheelchair-accessible car park ensures that guests with mobility challenges have a convenient space to park close to the entrance.

A Heartfelt Community Experience

The comments from previous attendees reflect the strong sense of community at CCC. One attendee shared their experience of finding solace after a significant earthquake, noting how the church provided comfort during a challenging time. Many have praised the amazing kids ministry and the genuine connections they made within the congregation.

For those going through difficult times, such as health challenges or personal struggles, the church community often comes together to provide support. Stories of meal deliveries, emotional assistance, and prayer chains exemplify the true spirit of community within CCC.

Building Lifelong Relationships

While some attendees have felt a lack of connection, many others emphasize the importance of reaching out and engaging with fellow members. The church encourages volunteers to participate in various ministries, fostering an environment where lasting relationships can blossom. Whether you're helping in the nursery or participating in community outreach programs, every contribution is valued and contributes to the overarching mission of CCC.
