Welcome to First United Methodist Church in Fairbanks, Alaska

First United Methodist Church (FUMC) in Fairbanks is more than just a place of worship; it is a welcoming community that embraces everyone, including families, military members, and individuals seeking spiritual growth.

Accessibility for All

At FUMC, accessibility is a priority. The church features a wheelchair-accessible car park ensuring that all visitors can easily access the building without any barriers. This commitment to inclusivity is reflected in their facilities.

Wheelchair-Accessible Entrance

Guests will find a wheelchair-accessible entrance, which allows everyone to participate fully in the life of the church. This thoughtful design means that all members of the community can join in worship services, activities, and fellowship without difficulty.

A Close-Knit Community

FUMC is known for its kind and caring community. One family, proud to call this church home for three years, shared their experience: "We love that we know everyone by name." Such personal connections make it a warm and inviting place for newcomers and long-time members alike.

Activities for Everyone

The church offers a variety of programs that cater to all ages. Families with young children appreciate the nursery services, while adults can participate in bible studies, craft groups, and specialized men's and women's groups. Excitingly, a young adult group is also being started, highlighting the church's dedication to fostering relationships across generations.

Memorable Experiences
