What a jolly good place to worship with the whole family! The church family is simply delightful and so welcoming. There are heaps of activities and chances to lend a hand to one another and the community. The children's church and programs have been a real blessing to our family. And oh, the holiday services offer an array of choices for worship and learning about the Lord. With a Saturday evening service and three Sunday services each week, there are plenty of convenient options for families, even those with shift workers or jam-packed Sunday schedules. We can't praise this church, its lovely congregation, and the solid biblical teachings each week enough. Cheers to a splendid place of worship!
