Trinity Community Church - Hockessin

Welcome to Trinity Community Church, Hockessin, Delaware

Trinity Community Church is a vibrant and welcoming congregation located in Hockessin, Delaware. This church stands out not only for its beautiful architecture and modern design but also for its commitment to accessibility and community outreach.

Accessibility for All

One important feature of Trinity Community Church is its wheelchair-accessible car park. This ensures that everyone, regardless of mobility challenges, can easily access the facilities. The wheelchair-accessible entrance allows smooth entry into the church, making it inviting for all members of the community. Accessibility is a priority here, ensuring that everyone feels included and welcome.

A Mixed Experience

While many attendees have shared positive experiences, like the heartfelt worship services and friendly community atmosphere, some have expressed concerns. One parent reported their dissatisfaction with how children were treated during an Easter event, highlighting a need for better staff readiness. However, numerous testimonials emphasize the supportive and genuine nature of the church family. One regular attendee remarked, "Wonderful people, amazing services with great praise and worship," underscoring the strong bond within the church community. Others have praised the impactful messages delivered weekly, which are rich in Scripture and encourage personal growth.

Community and Fellowship

Trinity Community Church has been described as a beautiful church with a strong sense of community. Many families find joy in the various programs offered, such as children's services and Bible studies. Comments like "My daughter is so excited about Sunday School" reflect the church's commitment to fostering a nurturing environment for young ones. The pastor and staff are noted for their friendliness and willingness to assist anyone in need. "You absolutely feel the love of God around you," one member stated, emphasizing the warmth and fellowship experienced at Trinity.
