Victory Christian Fellowship - New Castle

Welcome to Victory Christian Fellowship in New Castle, Delaware

Victory Christian Fellowship, located in New Castle, Delaware, stands out as a vibrant community church where individuals feel welcomed and cared for. This church is not just a place of worship; it serves as a second home for many who seek spiritual growth, family connections, and community service.

Accessibility for All

One of the key features of Victory Christian Fellowship is its commitment to accessibility. The church boasts a wheelchair-accessible car park, ensuring that everyone can enjoy the services and events without concern. Upon entering, visitors will find a wheelchair-accessible entrance, making it easy for those with mobility challenges to participate fully in the church experience.

A Family Atmosphere

Many attendees have shared their heartfelt experiences at Victory Christian Fellowship. One visitor noted, "I was treated like family when I found my way to Victory." This sense of belonging is palpable from the moment newcomers step through the doors. The church offers a friendly environment where individuals are embraced as part of the community.

Engaging Worship and Uplifting Messages

The worship experience at Victory is often described as "off-the-charts incredible." The music and atmosphere allow congregants to connect deeply with God. Messages delivered by the pastoral team, including Pastor Gary and Pastor Laurie Whetstone, are rooted in scripture and resonate with many attendees. One attendee remarked how the messages often feel personally directed, showcasing the church's commitment to spiritual guidance.

Community Outreach and Support

Victory Christian Fellowship is also known for its extensive outreach initiatives. With various ministries such as Daughters of Esther, Celebrate Recovery, and even food distribution programs, the church aims to meet both spiritual and practical needs. "They provide great food to people in need," shared one member, highlighting the church's dedication to serving the community.

Opportunities to Connect and Grow

There are numerous activities at Victory designed for every age group, ensuring that no one feels isolated. From youth ministries to adult classes and community events, there is something for everyone. Additionally, the introduction of Zoom sessions for the sick and shut-ins demonstrates the church's adaptability and commitment to inclusivity.
