Faith City Family Church, located in Newark, Delaware, stands as a beacon of hope and faith for many. The welcoming atmosphere, led by the passionate Pastor Hare, has attracted a diverse congregation eager to foster their spiritual growth and community involvement.

Accessibility for All: Wheelchair-Accessible Facilities

One of the standout features of Faith City Family Church is its wheelchair-accessible entrance. This focus on accessibility ensures that everyone, regardless of physical ability, can participate fully in worship services and community events. The church provides a well-planned wheelchair-accessible car park, making it easier for those with mobility challenges to attend services comfortably.

A Spirit-Filled Experience

Visitors often describe their experiences at Faith City Family Church as deeply uplifting. One first-time visitor shared, “Faith City gave me a Spirit-filled vibe that captured the presence of the Holy Ghost in a very clear way.” Many attendees appreciate the music, vibrant worship, and the genuine caring of the community. The powerful sermons delivered by Pastor Hare resonate with audiences, creating a sense of connection and divine presence.

Community Outreach and Support

Faith City Family Church is not just a place of worship; it’s actively involved in serving the local community. The church runs various outreach programs to aid those in need, particularly in low-income urban areas. This dedication to service aligns with the ministry’s mission to spread love and support. As one member noted, “They do so much for the community and his dedication and determination are just what you imagined.”

Room for Improvement: Addressing Visitor Concerns

While many find the church environment welcoming, some visitors have expressed concerns regarding handling children during services. One family described an uncomfortable experience where they were escorted out due to a child’s behavior. This feedback highlights the need for improvements in accommodating families, perhaps by providing separate areas with video streaming for kids.
