Exploring the Church: A Guide to the Religious Society of Friends in Newark, Delaware

Located in Newark, Delaware, the Church Religious Society of Friends offers a warm and welcoming environment for all who wish to attend. Known for its friendly community, this small meeting gathers in the library of NCCL every Sunday at 10:30 AM.

Accessibility Features

Understanding the importance of accessibility, the Church has made significant efforts to ensure that everyone can participate fully in their services. One of the standout features is the wheelchair-accessible entrance. This allows individuals with mobility challenges to enter the building comfortably and safely.

Wheelchair-Accessible Car Park

In addition to an accessible entrance, the church also provides a wheelchair-accessible car park. This feature is essential for those attending services, allowing easy access from vehicles to the entrance without any obstacles. Such thoughtful considerations make the Religious Society of Friends an ideal choice for anyone seeking a supportive spiritual community.

Seasonal Transition

During the summer months, the congregation transitions to the London Britain meeting house located on Route 896, just south of Hills Auction. This change allows for a different setting while maintaining the same commitment to inclusivity and friendliness.
