Christ Transformation Temple - Townsend

Welcome to Christ Transformation Temple: A Place of Worship in Townsend, Delaware

Christ Transformation Temple (CTT) is more than just a church; it is a vibrant community dedicated to worship and service. Located in Townsend, Delaware, this place of worship honors its founding families—Mr. and Mrs. George Omari, Mr. and Mrs. George Hiuhu, and Mr. and Mrs. John Mayaka. Additionally, the invaluable contributions of Pastors Kefa and Joan Obara have played a significant role in shaping the heart of CTT.

Family Worship at CTT

Many visitors describe Christ Transformation Temple as a fantastic church for family worship. The welcoming atmosphere makes it an ideal environment for families seeking to grow in their faith together. With a focus on community and togetherness, CTT is committed to providing a nurturing space where all individuals can explore their spirituality.

Accessibility Features at Christ Transformation Temple

One of the key aspects of CTT is its commitment to accessibility for everyone. The church offers a wheelchair-accessible entrance, ensuring that all attendees can enter the building with ease. In addition, there is a wheelchair-accessible car park, making it convenient for those who may require additional support. These accessibility features reflect CTT's dedication to inclusivity, allowing members of the community from Middletown, Odessa, Dover, and Townsend to join together in worship without barriers.
