St. Helena Roman Catholic Church - Wilmington

Welcome to St. Helena Roman Catholic Church

St. Helena Roman Catholic Church, located in Wilmington, Delaware, is not just a place of worship; it is a community filled with love, warmth, and tradition. For many, including families spanning generations, this church has been a cornerstone of spiritual life.

A Welcoming Community

Visitors frequently remark on the kind and welcoming people that make up the congregation. One parishioner noted, "Come one, come ALL! We are a VERY active, LOVING and WELCOMING community!" This spirit is palpable during services and events alike, making newcomers feel right at home.

Accessibility Features

Understanding the importance of accessibility, St. Helena's ensures that everyone can participate in their vibrant community. The church features a wheelchair-accessible car park and a wheelchair-accessible entrance, allowing all individuals, regardless of mobility challenges, to access the church comfortably and safely.

Spiritual Activities and Events

St. Helena's offers a variety of spiritual activities that cater to different needs within the community. From the Lenten Schedule, which includes daily Mass and Stations of the Cross, to special events like the "St Helena Novena," parishioners find opportunities for growth and fellowship. As one attendee shared, "The Holy Spirit is very much ALIVE here!"

Delicious Community Meals

The church also hosts social gatherings that bring together the congregation's diverse membership. The Second Sunday Breakfasts and Fish Fries during Lent are particularly notable, providing delicious meals and an opportunity for fellowship. Patrons rave about the varied all-you-can-eat brunch, stating, "Great breakfast for $10.00!"

Musical Excellence

One of the highlights of the St. Helena experience is its music program. Led by an exceptional music director, the choir is often described as "the finest" and offers a rich musical backdrop during Masses and other events. As a parishioner remarked, "Our music director, Joe Loudon, is an amazing artist."

A Place for Every Generation

Families cherish their time at St. Helena, with many recounting memories that span decades. From weddings to baptisms and beyond, the church remains a vital part of their lives. As one visitor fondly expressed, "My grandparents got married here, I would not be here today if this church didn't exist."
