The Episcopal Church of Saints Andrew and Matthew - Wilmington

Welcome to The Episcopal Church of Saints Andrew and Matthew

The Episcopal Church of Saints Andrew and Matthew, located in Wilmington, Delaware, has long been a cherished community hub. Despite some challenges, it remains a welcoming place of worship.

Accessibility at Saints Andrew and Matthew

One of the church's key features is its commitment to **accessibility** for all congregants and visitors. The **wheelchair-accessible car park** ensures that individuals with mobility challenges can easily access the facilities. Furthermore, there is a **wheelchair-accessible entrance**, making it convenient for everyone to participate in the church's activities and services.

Community Impact

While the church has earned praise for its welcoming environment, it also faces criticism. Some local residents have expressed concerns regarding the church's loud bells that ring over twelve times a day, often disrupting sleep for those nearby. Despite noise complaints lodged with local authorities, the bells continue to ring, leading to questions about adherence to local sound ordinances.

A Hub for Support and Friendship

On a positive note, the church houses the Friendship House, which provides substantial support to both men and women seeking housing assistance and other resources. This commitment to helping those in need is echoed in comments from attendees who appreciate the church's involvement in community services, including feeding the homeless.

A Welcoming Community

Visitors often remark on the friendly atmosphere within the church. Many describe it as a "comfy and helpful place" where they feel embraced by the congregation. It's not uncommon to hear stories of lives positively impacted by this community. Regular events, from festive dinners to concerts, further deepen connections among parishioners.

Conclusion

While The Episcopal Church of Saints Andrew and Matthew faces certain challenges, it undeniably serves as a vital community center in Wilmington. With its focus on accessibility and its dedication to supporting individuals in need, the church continues to welcome all who enter its doors. Whether you are looking for a place of worship or a community that cares, Saints Andrew and Matthew invites you to visit and experience its spirit firsthand.
